Tim Lane Promoted to Deputy Warden
at the Ross-Cash Center

Frankfort, Ky. (Sept. 15, 2015) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Commissioner LaDonna H. Thompson today announced the promotion of Tim Lane to deputy warden at the Ross-Cash Center in Lyon County. His promotion is effective Sept. 16.

Lane began his career with the Department of Corrections in 1995 as a correctional officer at the Western Kentucky Correctional Complex (WKCC). He was promoted to sergeant in 2001 and lieutenant in 2004. As lieutenant, he served as the institution's internal affairs officer. In 2008 he was promoted to captain and in 2011 was promoted to unit administrator I.

In 2014 he was promoted to unit administrator II and transferred to the Kentucky State Penitentiary (KSP). During his career, Lane served as the forestry detail supervisor, security threat group (STG) coordinator, and institutional armorer.

"Tim Lane is a valuable asset to the department and is committed to the mission of the department," said Thompson. "He has devoted the past 20 years to the department and has always been someone we could depend on. I believe he will be a tremendous asset to the management of the Ross-Cash Center."

Lane has been recognized with numerous awards during his career, including employee of the month and supervisor of the quarter.

During his correctional career, Lane served 12 years on the Corrections Emergency Response Team (CERT). He is a graduate of the Commissioner's Executive Leadership Program and a 22-year retired United States Air Force veteran.

Lane is a graduate of Mid-Continent University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and from the Community College of the Air Force where he received his associate's degree in criminal justice.
